

PODARAS STRATON

A Chaminade High School graduate, Straton accumulated many accolades during his career. For the Flyers, Straton was a 3x NSCHSAA All-League player and named The 2014 Catholic League Catcher of the Year as a sophomore. In 2016, he was named the captain of the Chaminade baseball team, ranked the top catcher in the state of New York by Baseball Player Report, 1st Team All New York by Newsday, and received the CatcherMtrx Catcher of The Year award. Straton went on to be a 4-year starting catcher for Division I Radford University. While in college he was a 2x Big South All-Academic Team member. In 2021 he slashed .302/.434/.414 and led all of Division I baseball in runners caught stealing, earning him First Team All-Conference in the Big South as well as a semi-finalist for the Buster Posey Award for the top catcher in Division I baseball. After his college career, he signed a professional contract with the Los Angeles Angels where he played 3 seasons.

Straton is available for catching, fielding, hitting lessons, and team training at CSP
